About This Game

The starry sky spreads far and wide overhead...

This story full of love, comedy, and excitement follows our protagonist and his stargazing friends as they grow together. "A Sky Full of Stars" is a coming-of-age astronomy tale by the same team who brought you "If My Heart Had Wings".

Some things change and some stay the same...

Childhood friendships, passed-down traditions, deep bonds forged over time, and even deeper feelings all intersect. Old relationships and moments left in the past are all drawn clearly in "A Sky Full of Stars".

It didn't matter if we were near, far, or anywhere...we always looked to the same sky.

"A Sky Full of Stars" is a tale of young people from different schools' astronomy clubs coming together and gazing at the stars.

Innumerable stars twinkling in the night sky...

To replicate the night sky as accurately as possible in "A Sky Full of Stars", images were created using data from the Hipparcos Catalogue (found at: hipparcos/tycho2catalog) and the "Starry Winds MMD" planetarium engine software.

Voices that sound like they're right there next to you...

Certain scenes in "A Sky Full of Stars" have been recorded using the binaural recording method. Using both a normal mic and a binaural mic to get in as close as possible, we've been able to come up with an audio experience that offers a natural-feeling closeness with the characters.

A breathtakingly wide-open winter view...

It is a very beautiful, interesting, relaxing and pleasant VN. It is done very well with some extremely nice characters. There were a lot of memories, but it was not bad at all. Honestly the most enjoyable route was Orihime. It was a beautiful ending with Orihime, but I would have liked to see some kids there.. Amazing Visual novel I recommend this one and "If My Heart Had Wings" both are made by the same people. This one made me tear up way to many times not from sadness (only sometimes) but mostly from how adorable it was. Hikari is best girl!!! mostly because of her ending though.. Have you ever had that tight feeling in your chest that feels warm and inviting? yes I know it's a very cheesy question but, have you? I spent almost 40 hrs completing my first run though and i probably had the feeling for more than half that time.

I'm a very fresh player when it comes to visual novels. My first ever visual novel was "Sabot of the Witch", which was very interesting in its own way and got me into the story. However, never have I ever, been inspired as much as I was when I played this game. Its phenomenal, breathtaking, dazzling, heartbreaking, so relate-able I almost cried tears of joy at some scenes. Like I've said prior I haven't played many visual novels since i'm fairly new to the genre so I cant confirm if most of them are as riveting as this. However, If that's not case, then writers from Moe Novel have something in them that stands out from the rest. "They are truely magnificent". They did so well it honestly just feels like a stilled anime put on slideshow. if this was given an anime adaptation i would be all over it.

Now, Summarizing the game itself is a whole other beauty and personal gave me way too much nostalgia of my younger days I almost had a heart attack XD. Our cast of characters are so well rounded and interesting that it really cant fit the cliché bill, "even though it does". Ecspecially Hikari. I love this story so so much. and i don't know if I'll ever love another as much as this one. It inspired me to the point of disheartenment when i finished the story. I wanted more, so what did i do? I restarted. This Title need more love and guarantee you wont be disappointed
